Q3: What key challenges or issues faced by young people in the Scottish Borders should we be looking at and/or doing something about?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Mental health. As a charity working with young people, one of the biggest problems we encounter is poor mental health. The council service 'Penumbra' has just closed and so as far as we are aware the only service is 'One Step Borders'. This is not sufficient as poor mental health has a massive impact on young people, physically, socially and in terms of their ability to maintain a job, school/college or training.</li> <li>• Transport. For young people public</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Kids in gangs</li> <li>• racism</li> <li>• that kids in bad areas are getting put into drugs and alcohol because had not have good parents to support</li> <li>• kids getting into drugs and alcohol</li> <li>• discrimination</li> <li>• understanding me</li> <li>• Not having enough spaces to meet</li> <li>• not giving up and believing in yourself x 2</li> <li>• learning more slowly, try saying easier things to them if they don't</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Homeless kids x 2</li> <li>• Loss of a close family member x 2</li> <li>• car crashes/important news</li> <li>• kids are being bullied</li> <li>• We should raise more money to help battle cancer.</li> <li>• we complete challenges</li> <li>• better transport for rural areas and free transport for under 16s</li> <li>• more help to keep the borders clean and safe for young people more</li> <li>• More for disabled children.</li> <li>• Mental health and confidence</li> </ul>

transport is often their only way of getting around the borders. Particularly for those from low income families. It is extremely limited in certain areas, particularly in Berwickshire, where a bus from Eyemouth to Galashiels can take up to 3hrs. As a result many young people are isolated and cannot access the services that are available to them. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Scottish Borders often feels like a remote area, which means young people are often cut off from opportunities other young people in Scotland have. The Borders needs to get better known across Scotland - make young people from all across Scotland want to visit the Borders, and be involved in events the Borders has!</li> </ul>	understand, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• not giving up doing something tricky like a maths test</li> <li>• not giving up and doing something tricky</li> <li>• cancer</li> <li>• bullying what it's like for them out of school x 5</li> <li>• Kids who get hurt x 2</li> <li>• Bullying</li> <li>• Obesity x 2</li> <li>• young carers</li> <li>• Homelessness x 2</li> <li>• The image older generation hold of us, many don't know us and presume that we aren't good and nice individuals. Q4: Do you have any suggestions on how we can best recognise and celebrate the young people living in the Scottish Borders?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• "We use public events to showcase the achievements of our young people, this year this will include the Borders Art Fair and The Borders Book Festival.</li> <li>• A way of celebrating the success of young people could be to give them something that will help them in their lives. For example a bus pass for a year. Vouchers for the train. These are things that for a young person on a low wage could make a real difference."</li> <li>• Provide more job and award opportunities for those wishing to be noticed or recognised in hard work</li> <li>• Success evening</li> <li>• "Host events - music festivals, sports festivals etc.</li> <li>• Advertise these and invite people outwith the Borders.</li> <li>• Do something similar to the year of young people, 365 days of young people. Get individual stories of young people of the borders and share it on social media and with our decision makers</li> <li>• Praise them and encourage them. Allow them the chance to tell people about them and what they do and allow this information to be published either in schools or the wider community.</li> <li>• some people from the borders who are successful</li> <li>• by giving awards and prizes x 2</li> <li>• have a firework display x 2</li> <li>• "giving them some recognition and or more privileges</li> <li>• celebrate life x 5</li> <li>• posters, newsround, learn and talk to them</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• "more get togethers with people</li> <li>• more fundraisers</li> <li>• more festivals"</li> <li>• Birthday parties</li> <li>• Farm parties</li> <li>• a party/celebration x 2</li> <li>• when its new year give a present to a nice person</li> <li>• "a big party for the children</li> <li>• mini sports competition</li> <li>• farm partys</li> <li>• Everyone can come to a Party and have a fun time at the party, it will be the funnest time of their lives! (there would be cake of course!) :D</li> <li>• celebrate life</li> <li>• "more fundraising involving children</li> <li>• improve primary schools - some are really full and old</li> <li>• build more new primary schools"</li> <li>• Have a carnival</li> <li>• by Letting people know exactly what people do and how much of an effect it has had</li> <li>• Attending Ceremonies</li> <li>• Pay attention to the excellent work/achievements of the young people and recognise it</li> <li>• Awards in school</li> <li>• ceremonies and nominations</li> <li>• No School on Mondays</li> <li>• more get together and more raising money and more celebrations</li> </ul>
