DESIGNING OUR LEARNING FUTURE (DOLF) – DISCUSSION

2. In attendance to give a presentation on Designing Our Learning Future (DOLF) project were Ann Blackie, Locality Manager, Teviot and Liddesdale and Resources and Fiona Hume, Hawick High School. Circulated at the meeting was a copy of the Vision and Values statement which had been agreed by all partners and the Learning Community Board. In her introduction, Ms Blackie explained that the Teviot and Liddesdale Learning Community would strive to provide a culture of achievement for all children and young people from the locality. All agencies and their representatives within the area had contributed to this by ensuring that young people were encouraged to participate in regular and varied opportunities, promoted and celebrated success and achievement at all levels, encouraged a multi-generational attitude in the opportunities and experiences on offer and embedded a 'can dae' message across and throughout the community. The DOLF ethos would allow young people to flourish and access wider opportunities leading to increased achievement. Ms Blackie continued that volunteers from the full group had developed an Action Group, comprising members from primary and the secondary school, children's services, school nurse and health visitors. This Group had prepared an Action Plan to take forward to the wider community and would report back through the Learning Community Board.
3. The Chairman invited questions. Ms Blackie was asked what barriers existed to prohibit young people from achieving their potential. It was explained that there was a whole host of barriers: financial, difficult home situations, physical or learning disabilities and being fearful of trying. Ms Blackie gave an example of the Vision 2014 programme where young people had received a sporting achievement card which was stamped whenever they tried a new sport e.g. archery, basketball etc. The programme had been very inclusive and had been a gateway into sport for many young people. Ms Blackie was asked for a breakdown of the number of young people who were not in education, employment or training in the area? Ms Blackie would investigate and report back to the Forum. In answer to a question, Ms Blackie clarified that the main focus of the Action Plan was to initiate a culture shift which would result in a positive influence on future generations. The Chairman thanked Ms Blackie and Ms Hume for the informative presentation.

SCOTTISH EMPTY HOMES CONFERENCE

4. The Chairman, Councillor Turnbull, reported on his recent attendance at the Scottish Empty Homes Conference. He highlighted Redcar's Coast Country Housing Limited project, which had restored empty properties back into use for sale or rent. The project utilised the skills of tradesmen who were long term unemployed and had also taken on apprentices, who were trained on site as they redeveloped the buildings. The project had been a success and officials from the company had agreed to meet with Scottish Borders Council for discussion and to view possible development opportunities in Hawick, they would also give a presentation to a meeting of the Area Forum early next year. The Chairman continued that two property owners had already approached him stating their interest in the project. In answer to a question, the Chairman explained that town centre regeneration had been discussed at the Conference the main emphasis had been to ensure that empty properties above shops were occupied. An example of Bathgate had been given whereby subsidised rental had proven to be a success in rejuvenating the town centre.

  - Making our roads safer - Five conditional offers were issued to drivers using mobile phones during November 2013, three conditional offers were issued to motorists not wearing their seatbelt during the same period, road checks were planned to encourage safer winter driving.
