5. Borders Railway Community Liaison Officer, Jonathon Hepton, was in attendance to give a presentation and update on the Borders Railway project. He began his presentation with a brief history of the line, referring to the station at Stow which had first opened in 1848. It was closed in 1969 and would now be re-opened with the railway line in 2015. A draft timetable for the new service had been published and Mr Hepton gave a summary of the service to and from Stow. The journey from Stow to Edinburgh Waverley would take 45 minutes. On Monday to Saturday there would be 6 trains before 9 am, the earliest being at 5.30 am. There would be 4 trains from Stow to Galashiels before 9 am and the journey would take 9 minutes. There would be an hourly service at off-peak times and all day on Sundays. The presentation went on to look at the type of trains to be used on the line as well as details of the seating, disabled access, cycle storage and facilities such as toilets and free wi-fi. There would be detailed information at the station displayed on clear electronic signs. Rail fares from Stow to Edinburgh were estimated to be £7.70 single, £12-£13 peak return and £11-£12 return off-peak. Fares would be less with a railcard or season ticket; if the journey was part of a longer trip; and for children up to 15 years of age. Children under 5 travelled free. POLICE SCOTLAND

6. Inspector Hodges referred to rural crime and advised farmers were alerted through the National Farmers Union of the areas were thefts were taking place. In regard to the issue of drugs he was confident that Police Scotland was in a better position to react to intelligence received. In the year to date, anti social behaviour issues had been reduced as a result of support and input by safer communities, housing providers and victim support. He presented information on national, divisional and local festival initiatives much of which was targeted towards shop lifting in town centres. In response to questions asked, Inspector Hodges advised that every second police vehicle in Galashiels was fitted with winter tyres. He further advised that Officers in the Police Licensing Department ensured that proper advice was given to facilitate school parties. Community Councillor Stewart expressed concern about traffic congestion and inconsiderate parking in the Old Town, Peebles, which meant that traffic could at times be reduced to a single lane and expressed concern that there was a possibility that heavy goods vehicles might mount the pavement, and submitted that it should be easy for police officers to issue parking tickets. Inspector Hodges said this was a matter of resources, advising that police officers in Peebles were being as proactive as they could be in relation to car parking issues and would respond when they were able and continue to do their best. In response to a question raised by Community Councillor Tulloch relating to a fake police car having stopped someone on the A702, Inspector Hodges advised that although enquiries were ongoing about the situation; he did not feel that this would be an ongoing problem. Community Councillor Lewin advised that he still awaited information from Police Scotland relating to statistics for the number of accidents on the B712 from Peebles to Broughton. Inspector Hodges advised that he would ask PC Mark Halliday to provide the statistics to Community Councillor Lewin.

DECISION
NOTED the Police update and that the statistical information on the number of accidents on the B712 from Peebles to Broughton would be provided to Community Councillor Lewin.

There had been no calls to dwelling fires over the period and no fire casualties had been reported. The SFRS had responded to 7 road traffic collisions over the period. SFRS had attended 5 secondary fires which were related to a number of fires involving grass/bushes or rubbish. This was very encouraging as this report encompassed bonfire night which was one of the busiest periods for the SFRS.

OPEN QUESTIONS
8. Community Councillor Lewin referred to better decision making mechanisms being in place when Council made decisions and where communities had schemes they wished to raise. Community Councillor Lewin was advised that at the last meeting of Council it had been agreed that the petitions committee would incorporate deputations and this would give an opportunity for groups to take their requests to Council.

conditions were not being adhered to, although they were advised that planning officers were investigating matters, nothing happened. Councillor Bhatia advised that Scrutiny Committee was being re-established and suggested that this might be a matter which that Committee could take on board. It was expected that Community Councils would be asked to make recommendations to the Scrutiny Committee on issues they would like to see addressed. Community Councillors were asked to liaise with local Members and draw their attention to planning conditions which were not in place.
