3. PLANNING PERFORMANCE FRAMEWORK ANNUAL REPORT

The Depute Chief Planning Officer made a presentation on the 2016/17 Planning Performance against Key markers, which he likened to a report card. The assessment had been undertaken in December 2017 and covered the 15 key markers. It was highlighted that there were no red markers with 4 amber and 11 green. In terms of decision making timescales, it was explained that residential applications had improved and householder applications were currently 6-8 weeks, which was slower than the previous year but faster than the Scottish average. Re-introduction of the pre-application service would improve the key marker for this service. In terms of marker 14 it was explained that a number of legacy records were overdue but there was no legal provision to remove these. There had been some criticism in terms of information supplied for developer contributions compared to other years but it was hoped to that this would be eliminated in the next 12 months. The general direction was very good and illustrated an improvement year on year performance since 2012/13. The Chairman congratulated the entire team on their performance and their professionalism.
