10.	Motion by Councillor Rowley Consider Motion by Councillor Rowley in the following terms:- "Whilst the eyes of the world are rightly on the utterly appalling events in Ukraine there are still positive things happening around the world. There is a beacon of light here in the Borders Could I commend to council the extraordinary achievement of my constituent, David Melrose, who is currently competing in the Paralympic in Beijing. He's in the curling team..... David is a former Council employee, he's an active member of the local community in Berwickshire and a key member of Duns Community Council. He's an inspiration. Whilst helping his community as a Fire Service reservisthe received massive life-changing injuries that confined him to a wheelchair Despite that he's fought back. He's continued his community involvement but impressively he's taken-on the challenge of elite sport at an international level."	5 mins
