We do this in a safe, accessible and positive environment through a five strand programme of film, art, music, physical activity and well-being. Increasingly working in collaboration and partnership with agencies drawn from education, health, police, social work and the voluntary sector we provide a comprehensive programme that is directed by the needs and wishes of the young person. In working in such a collaborative way we aim to deliver a democratic model of youth led youth work; to support and assist young people through life changes, training, mentoring and the sharing of responsibility to take up with confidence the mantle of leadership; to always act on the views and opinions of young people to create and shape a new project or programme; to continuously champion young people's achievements and place in the community; to ensure that the voice of children and young people is heard at all levels of community action.
