Dear Sir / Madam,

I was unable to comment on your website. My house in Rachan is not included in your List. I never got a link when I put my details in your website. Can you please remedy this! I tried it several times.

Comment to this application

Commenter Type: Neighbour

Stance: NEUTRAL

Comment Reason: -> inadequate access

The new proposed access road across the field seems intrusive. A less intrusive solution could be to access the new house from the existing road that goes to Norlands and the housing cluster in this area.

Thank you for processing my comment.
yours sincerely
