HCC was made aware of the withdrawal of this bus service and on the basis of public concerns in this and surrounding communities that the withdrawal of the service would result in no public transport connection for locals, tourists and those in employment in neighbouring towns, it was decided to raise this petition to seek support for the continuation of the service and there is scope for compromise on the service which would have to be negotiated. Hawick suffers enough isolation at present with the new railway only reaching Galashiels and this would only compound the isolation. Those who travel to work would have to make the decision to keep working with time added to their day or give up their employment.

Would people in Kelso or Jedburgh who originally wanted to come to Hawick but are faced with travelling via Galashiels not just then stay there rather than extend their travelling time and therefore Hawick loses out on visitors. The withdrawal of the service particularly affects Denholm but in Hawick itself for those residents who live on the perimeter of the town in the Weensland area, they rely on this service as local transport.

The attached petition was distributed to six outlets in Hawick requesting that the service is retained and in the short few days available has amassed hundreds of signatures which is indicative of public feeling.

It should be noted by the reader that you have to live with this situation to really appreciate the effect this withdrawal would have on people in this area.
