

The granite memorial will be attached to a wedge with a sealant and the wedge will be secure to a concrete foundation with a steel dowel

William Purves Memorials will maintain the up keep of the memorial by cleaning and re-painting when required. As well as any re-fixing that the memorial may require.