Your Data: Alcohol Licencing

The Scottish Borders Licensing Board will act as the 'Data Controller' for the personal data you provide to us. The information held by the Licensing Board is managed by employees of Scottish Borders Council, and contained within Scottish Borders Council systems. The Data Protection Officer, who is responsible for ensuring personal data is managed in accordance with data protection legislation, can be contacted as follows:

Address: Data Protection Officer, Information Management, Scottish Borders Council, Newtown St Boswells TD6 0SA.

Email: dataprotection@scotborders.gov.uk

Telephone: 0300 100 1800

The information we collect from you will include details such as your name, address, e-mail address, telephone number, date of birth, national insurance number, and (if applicable) details of any previous criminal convictions and previous licence information.

Why do we need this information?

Your information is being collected to allow the Scottish Borders Licensing Board to administer the process of applying for licences under the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005.

We need to know the personal data requested on the application form in order to provide this service to you. If you do not provide this information then we will be unable to process your request for a licence. We will not collect any personal data from you that is not needed for this purpose.

The lawful basis for collecting your information in these circumstances is:

Compliance with legal obligation: Scottish Borders Licensing Board is required to collect your information in order to carry out the function of providing licences in relation to the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005.

What will we do with your information?

We will use your information to process your application for a licence. This will involve sharing your information with Police Scotland, and where the type of licence applied for is a premises licence, notice of your application (including a copy of it) will be given to people with a notifiable interest in the land neighbouring the premises, any community council for the area where the premises is situated and the relevant Council area office for the area where the premises is situated.

Applications will be considered at meetings of the Scottish Borders Licensing Board, which are open to the public. We are also required to publish information in licensing registers, which will include the licence holder and premises manager's name, and details about the premises.

You should also be aware that your data will be stored on servers located within the United Kingdom. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that your data is kept secure and more information on how we do this can be provided by contacting the Data Protection Officer (contact details can be found above).

How long will we keep your information?

We will keep your information for the length of time specified within our document retention schedules, and after this period it will be destroyed under secure arrangements.
