2021 - 6	10	The SCOTTISH BORDERS HEALTH & SOCIAL CARE INTEGRATION JOINT BOARD sought a timeline for the work to be taken forward.	Stuart Easingwood	April 2022	In Progress: Work to define the Carers Needs Assessment has commenced with the IJB Carers Workstream. The needs assessment and planning will be incorporated into the updated IJB Strategic Commissioning Plan, however an update on day services will be provided in advance of the conclusion to the development of the full Strategic Commissioning Plan.  Update 15.06.22: Needs assessment questionnaire went out to unpaid carers on 06.06.22.  Update 21.09.22: Mr Myers reported that the Court of Session had issued a legal challenge in regard to the closure of the Hawick Day Services during the pandemic on the premise of a lack of a legally compliant process. The Carers Workstream had undertaken a needs assessment and were	G

meeting the following week to consider the way forward.  Update 31.10.22: Mr Myers provided an update to the action and reported that the matter had been considered by full Council and a paper had been considered by full Council and a paper had been drafted that took into consideration the findings of the carers survey, workstream and the judgement from the Court of Session. The paper would be discussed by the Strategic Planning Group at its' meeting to be held the following day and an update would be provided to the next Integration Joint Board meeting to be held on 16 November 2022.  Complete 16.11.22: The HEALTH & SOCIAL CARE INTEGRATION JOINT BOARD agreed to amend the direction to read "To ask Scottish Borders Council to continue to work to develop a proposal to inform the re-commissioning of the Tevior and Liddesdale day service in line with the need in the locality and to return to the IJB in February 2023 with a plan for what might be delivered."  The HEALTH & SOCIAL CARE INTEGRATION JOINT BOARD noted that further work was being settled.
