Chief Planning Officer

APPLICATION REFERENCE : 16/00132/FUL

Schedule of Plans and Drawings Approved:

Plan Ref	Plan Type	Plan Status
Westloch 002F	Location Plan	Approved
Boundary Plan	Other	Approved
Westloch 003F	Site Plan	Approved

REASON FOR DECISION

The proposals are acceptable and comply with the relevant Scottish Borders Local Plan policies in that the access is an appropriate development in the countryside and it accords with the standards required for a new access onto a public road.

SCHEDULE OF CONDITIONS

- 1 The proposed access shall be constructed as per the specification and geometry detailed on drawing Westloch 003F dated 7 March 2016.

Any gates which are to be hung must be done so to ensure they open into the field. The public road adjacent to the proposed access must be kept free of mud and debris during the life span of the access.

It should be noted that all work within the public road boundary must be undertaken by a contractor first approved by the Council.

Reason: to ensure a satisfactory access onto the public road in the interests of road safety

FOR THE INFORMATION OF THE APPLICANT

N.B: This permission does not include any consent, approval or licence necessary for the proposed development under the building regulations or any other statutory enactment and the development should not be commenced until all consents are obtained.

Notice of Initiation of Development

Section 27 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act (as amended) requires that any person who has been granted planning permission (including planning permission in principle) and intends to start development must, once they have decided the date they will start work on the development, inform the planning authority of that date as soon as is practicable. A form is enclosed with this decision notice for this purpose.

Notice of Completion of Development

Section 27B requires that any person who completes a development for which planning permission (including planning permission in principle) has been given must, as soon as practicable after doing so, give notice of completion to the planning authority.

When planning permission is granted for phased development then under section 27B(2) the permission is to be granted subject to a condition that as soon as practicable after each phase, other than the last, is completed, the person carrying out the development is to give notice of that completion to the planning authority.

In advance of carrying out any works it is recommended that you contact Utility Bodies whose equipment or apparatus may be affected by any works you undertake. Contacts include:

If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the Planning Authority to refuse planning permission for or approval required by a condition in respect of the proposed development, or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, the applicant may require the planning authority to review the case under Section 43A of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997 within three months from the date of this notice. The notice of review should be addressed to Corporate Administration, Council Headquarters, Newtown St Boswells, Melrose TD6 0SA.

If permission to develop land is refused or granted subject to conditions, whether by the Planning Authority or by the Scottish Ministers, and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state and cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted, the owner may serve on the Planning Authority a purchase notice requiring the purchase of his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part 5 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997.
