REASON FOR DECISION

Taking into account the protracted history associated with this site and the earlier approvals to development of the golf course and 18 dwellings it is felt that this application can be supported. The Reporters earlier decision to approve a dwelling on land to the east of Langton Field is clearly a determining factor and in this case there are material considerations for departing from the provisions of the development plan. Provided the applicant enters into a legal agreement to secure development contributions towards education it is considered that this proposal is acceptable subject to the listed conditions and informatives.
