ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CHIEF SOCIAL WORK OFFICER 2022/23

Report by Director Social Work & Practice (CSWO)

---

SCOTTISH BORDERS COUNCIL

28 September 2023

---

1 PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

- 1.1 This is the Chief Social Work Officer (CSWO) annual report on the work undertaken on behalf of the Council by the CSWO in this statutory role for 2022/23.
- 1.2 It provides the Council with an account of the decisions taken by the CSWO in the statutory areas of:
- Fostering and Adoption,
  - Child Protection,
  - Secure Orders,
  - Adult Protection,
  - Adults with Incapacity,
  - Mental Health
  - Justice.
- 1.3 The report also gives an overview of regulation and inspection, workforce issues and social policy themes over the year April 2022 to March 2023, and highlights some of the key challenges for that year.
- 1.4 This year the Office of the Chief Social Work Advisor to Scottish Government has sent out a new format for this year's report. The report contained as appendix A conforms to that format.

2 RECOMMENDATIONS

- 2.1 I recommend that the Council approves the report of the Chief Social Work Officer attached as Appendix A.

3 BACKGROUND

- 3.1 In compliance with their statutory functions under the Social Work (Scotland) Act 1968, all Local Authorities must have a CSWO. This requirement was reinforced by the recommendations contained in the Changing Lives Report published by the 21st Century Social Work Review Group to strengthen the governance and leadership roles of the CSWO.
- 3.2 A specific role of the CSWO in Scottish Borders, is to lead professional Social Work across the Council and to ensure that the Council's statutory Social Work legislative requirements are met. The CSWO role reports directly to the Chief Executive of Scottish Borders Council.

4 OVERVIEW AND EVALUATION

- 4.1 In 2017 the governance arrangements for Social Work in Scottish Borders Council were revised with the CSWO reporting directly to the Chief Executive. In 2018 the CSWO role absorbed the operational responsibility for Public Protection services on behalf of the Council, creating the role of Chief Social Work & Public Protection Officer. For the purposes of this report, the role and function will be referred to as Chief Social Work Officer (CSWO).
- 4.2 In regard to the ongoing integration agenda of the Health & Social Care Partnership (HSCP), as CSWO, I attend the Integration Joint Board (IJB) as a non-voting member to provide professional advice and guidance in matters pertaining to Social Work.
- 4.3 There are reflections of key Social Work performance data contained in the report.
- 4.4 A number of the challenges faced by Social Work in 2022/23 are identified in the report including ongoing financial constraints. As a service we continue to strive to identify and implement new ways of working and engaging with those who use our services – and to do so in a cost-effective way, whilst always aiming to deliver improved outcomes for our service users.
- 4.5 We continue to experience challenges in the recruitment and retention of staff. We are continuing with the Social Work trainee program to create opportunities for some of our existing 'unqualified' staff to progress onto professional Social Work qualification.
- 4.6 Our Public Protection services continue to do everything possible to keep people in Scottish Borders as safe as possible. In this year we note the outcomes of two external joint inspections for Adult Support & Protection and Children at Risk of Harm.
- 4.7 Despite the challenges, the Council continues to be well placed to deliver high quality services and improve outcomes for all of the people who access Social Work services.

5 IMPLICATIONS

5.1 Financial

There are no costs attached to any of the recommendations contained in this report but managing service change and efficiencies in the light of increasing demographic demand whilst maintaining service quality remains a significant challenge.

There is no impact on the Council's carbon emissions.

5.6 Changes to Scheme of Administration or Scheme of Delegation
