Dear Louise,

Thank you for informing me there will be a planning appeal (23/00031/RREF) related to the refused planning application near Whiteburn.

I wanted to reiterate that my objections to the planning remain. While the applicant implies the only reason for refusal relates the proposal being outside Whiteburn dwelling group boundaries, I believe there are still other reasons that were not fully pursued due to the overriding boundary restriction, and hope these will also be considered. These include unanswered questions on use of the fragile bridge over the Whiteburn (there is no mention of 3 ton rating on any title deeds I have seen), and other concerns related to dirty water management.

[REDACTED]

I hope you can take my comments into account,

Yours sincerely,

John
